Press Release

Signing Agreement between Bangladesh Legal Aid and Services Trust (BLAST) and Royal Danish Embassy

Today, on June 14, 2017, an agreement has been signed between Bangladesh Legal Aid and Services Trust (BLAST) and Royal Danish Embassy, Dhaka, for the project titled 'Pathways to Access to Justice for the Poor' to ensure justice for poor and helpless people. Denmark ambassador Michael Hemniti Winter on behalf of Royal Danish Embassy, Dhaka signed the agreement and Sara Hossain Honorary Executive Director of BLAST signed this agreement on behalf of BLAST.

The 'Pathways to Access to Justice for the Poor' project will work mainly on the issues of access justice for the socially excluded and marginalised persons and thereby contribute towards reducing poverty, inequality and discrimination.

BLAST is one of the largest non government legal aid organizations in Bangladesh. In order to ensure justice for the poor and the helpless people, BLAST provides legal aid from the village court to the Apex Court of the country. Apart from this, BLAST conducts research, advocacy and training programmes.
